BOUSQUET HOLSTEIN THANKSGIVING CARD

For the past fifteen years, the theme of our annual photography contest has been inspired by an exhibition at the Everson Museum of Art. This year's theme – Americana – was inspired by the 2023 Everson exhibition Native Americana by Frank Buffalo Hyde.

Americana is broadly defined as anything associated with or characteristic of the culture, civilization, history, or geography of America. This year's contest challenged student photographers to capture their personal definition of "Americana," through the juxtaposition of their own history, lived experience, and culture with the broader iconography of America.

Many thanks to the Director and staff of the Everson Museum of Art for participating in the jury for the competition.

Bousquet Holstein presented a scholarship check to Jennifer and made a donation to the Cicero-North Syracuse High School photography class where Heather Blaski is Jennifer's teacher.
